Acknowledgments

I would like to express my deep gratitude to Associate Professor Dr. Kate Grudpan for his kindly supervision, guidance, and provision of reading materials and encouragement. Special thanks are also due to Associate Professor Dr. Prasak Thavornytikarn for kindly supervision, valuable suggestions and encouragement. I like to thank Mr. William G. Prewett for his help in editing this thesis.

I wish to acknowledge the Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation (DTEC) of the Royal Thai Government for providing a scholarship throughout my study at Chiang Mai University. Acknowledgment is also due to the ERA Program, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University in collaboration with the University of Saarland.

I wish to thank my colleagues who have in one way or another contributed to the success of this work. Finally, I am very grateful to my well-beloved family for their understanding and supporting what I need in my life.
