ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my advisor, Assistant Professor Dr. Wasun Chantratita, for his valuable guidance, supporting all research supplies, continuous discussion and encouragement throughout my study. His kindness will be remembered forever.

My great appreciation is also expressed to Assistant Professor Dr. Pranee Leechanachai, Assistant Professor Dr. Wasna Sirirungsi and Professor Dr. Tanin Bhoopat for their advice and prove reading my thesis articles. I would like to offer my special thanks for their kindness.

My sincere thanks go to Khun Khumpian Khumnin for her advice, friendship, co-operation and excellent assistance.

I thank everyone in my family, especially my husband for giving encouragement throughout my study.

Finally, I thank the Department of Clinical Microbiology, the Faculty of Associated Medical Sciences for their support in providing instruments and a place to study, the Faculty of Graduate Studies for allowing me to have this project investigated, and all sample donors including in my research.
