ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to several people who made my dream come true. I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my major advisor Assistant Professor, the Dean Wilawan Senaratana, for her academic guidance and kindness support throughout this study. I gratefully acknowledge the valuable guidance, encouragement and support, understanding of my co-advisor Associate Professor Nunta Leksawasdi. Without their help, I would never have accomplished my goal.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to my home university: Professor Dr. Ba Denian, the president of Peking Union Medical College; Professor Shen Ning, the Dean of school of nursing, Peking Union Medical College; and Professor Huang Renjian, the co-president of Peking Union Medical College Hospital, for their encouragement, concerns and support throughout the study.

My appreciation is extended to Associate Professor Chomnard Potjanamart, Assistant Professor Akeau Unahalekhaka, and Associate professor Wilawan Picheansathian for their recommendations for my modified questionnaire. Gratitude is also go to the experts in Beijing, Professor Dr. Wang Aixia and Ms. Guo Guifang for their considering the face validity of the Chinese version of questionnaire. I would further to extent my thanks to the administrators and the head nurses in Peking Union Medical College hospital who had helped me during the period of data collection in hospital. I also wish to thank all nurses in PUMC hospital who participated in this study.

Further thanks goes to China Medical Board of New York, for providing financial support for the program, and to Chiang Mai University and Xi'an Medical University for providing me with the opportunity to get into this program.

Finally, I wish to express my love and appreciation to my families. To my respected parents and my parents in law, to my dearest sisters for their understanding, love, constant support, and encouragement through out the time. To my sweetest little son, Ding Ding, for his understanding mom's leaving and his always love to me.

At last, to my most beloved husband, Mr. Li Dong, for his understanding, sacrifice, valuable guidance, assistance, constant encouragement and emotional support in making this study possible.
