

DETERMINATION OF ARSENIC IN CONTAMINATED WATER
SAMPLES FROM RONPIBOON DISTRICT BY
NEUTRON ACTIVATION ANALYSIS

RATIYA SINGHON

A THESIS SUBMITTED TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL IN PARTIAL FULFILLMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS
FOR THE DEGREE OF
MASTER OF SCIENCE
IN CHEMISTRY

GRADUATE SCHOOL
CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY
SEPTEMBER 2002

DETERMINATION OF ARSENIC IN CONTAMINATED WATER
SAMPLES FROM RONPIBOON DISTRICT BY
NEUTRON ACTIVATION ANALYSIS

RATIYA SINGHON

THIS THESIS HAS BEEN APPROVED
TO BE A PARTIAL FULFILLMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS
FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF SCIENCE
IN CHEMISTRY

EXAMINING COMMITTEE

O. Arquero.....CHAIRMAN
Asst. Prof. Dr. Orn-anong Arquero

Sirinart Laoharajanaphand.....MEMBER
Dr. Sirinart Laoharajanaphand

Wimol Saiyasombat.....MEMBER
Dr. Wimol Saiyasombat

3 September 2002

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author wishes to express her heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to her supervisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Orn-anong Arquero, for her kind supervision and invaluable guidance throughout this research work. The author also would like to extend her sincere thanks to the followings :

To Dr. Sirinart Laoharajanaphand, for her technical suggestion on NAA and admirable service throughout this research work.

To Dr. Wimol Saiyasombat, for her suggestion throughout this research work.

To the Office of Atomic Energy for Peace(OAEP), Bangkok, for providing me, the study leave from the university during the period of my study and giving me an opportunity to pursue this research to a success.

To all the author's friends at Chiang Mai University, for their help and encouragement during the thesis preparation.

To the Chemistry Department of Chiang Mai University, the author is grateful for giving her an opportunity and invaluable support.

The author would like to acknowledge the financial support from the Postgraduate Education and Research Program in Chemistry of the Thai Ministry of University Affairs.

Finally, the author would like to express her deepest gratitude to her parents for their entire tender love and encouragement.

Ratiya Singhon

September 2002