ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express special thanks to my adviser Assoc. Prof. Dr. Kate Grudpan and my co-adviser Dr. Jaroon Jakmunee for their kind supervision and guidance, supporting equipments, as well as for developing my skill and knowledge on analytical chemistry applied in environmental issues. Great thank is addressed to Asst. Prof. Dr. Yuthsak Vaneesorn for his kind to be my examining member.

Sincere thanks are extended to friends in FBA research group for their kind helps and suggestions in my work. Likewise, other friends at Applied Algae Research Unit and Lotic Insect Ecology Research Unit for the full support of instruments on my fieldwork. Deeply thanks, Ma Nyo Nyo Aung (Myanmar, 2002 batch), P' Sochettra Tang (Cambodia, 2001 batch), Mr. Thanapat Sastraruji (Thailand, 2001 batch) and Ms. Kanthida Chiangthong (Thailand, 2002 batch) for their kind friendship and helpful assistance throughout my study time.

I specially thank Ms. Mingkwan Kanjina, from Academic Support and Development Unit for help on conducting official procedures.

Thanks are given to Santiphab Trading Company Limited for their permission to collect samples and the useful information.

Thanks are addressed to Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation (DTEC) for their financial support of study in Chiang Mai University.

I would like greatly to thank my parents, Mr. Ton Than and Mrs. Vu Thi Trang, my sister Ms. Ton Huong Giang for their financial support, endless love and care whole of my life. And finally, my thank is addressed to my fiancé, Mr. Nguyen Duc Quang, his love encourages me very much during my study here and continuing my life in the future.
