

VITA

Name: Miss Patcharee pripdeevech

Date of birth: November 22, 1979

Education: B. Sc. (Chemistry), Chiang Mai University, 1997-2000

M. S. (Chemistry), Chiang Mai University, 2001-2003

Ph. D. (Chemistry), Chiang Mai University, 2003-2007

Scholarship: Ph.D. Scholarship supported by The Royal Golden Jubilee
Ph.D. Program and the Thailand Research Fund

Training: GC×GC theory and its applications, RMIT University, Melbourne, Australia, February, 2005 to August, 2005 under supervision of Prof. Philip Marriott

List of conferences: International:

Poster presentation, “Application of two-dimensional gas chromatography to the evaluation of extraction methods for essential oil in Thai vetiver root” at the First International

Conference on Natural Products for Health and Beauty at Taksila Hotel, Mahasarakam, 2005, Thailand

National:

Poster presentation, “Comprehensive two-dimensional gas chromatography analysis of galangal essential oil” at the 6th Annual RGJ Ph.D. Congress at Jomtein Palm Beach Resort, Pattaya, Chonburi, 2006, Thailand

Publication:

Pripdeevech, P.; Wongpornchai, S.; Promsiri, A. Highly Volatile Constituents of Vetiveria zizanioides Roots Grown under Different Cultivation Conditions. Molecules, 2006, 11, 817-826.