ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The thesis has been completed with the support and help from many people. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the people who directly or indirectly encouraged and helped me in the past two years.

In particular, I would like to thank:

Professor Hafez Mohamed Hafez, Head of Institute of Poultry Disease, Free University Berlin, Germany, my senior subject advisor, for his encouragement and enthusiasm in this study. His stimulating, valuable comments, suggestions and great assistance played a significant role in the realization of this work;

Sincere thanks to Assoc. Pro. Dr. Pawin Padungtod (vice director), my Chiang Mai University advisor, for his careful guidance throughout the research and his epidemiological and analytical skills;

Truthful thanks to Professor Karl H. Zessin- academic director of the program; Dr. Maximilian P.O. Baumann – coordinator in FUB; Dr. Moses N. Kyule - senior scientist and principal epidemiological advisor; and Assoc. Pro. Dr. Lertrak Srikitjakarn and Assoc. Pro. Dr. Khwanchai Kruesukhon in CMU, for enthusiastically taking care of, sharing with, and encouraging us during the time we stayed in Berlin and Chiang Mai;

Great gratitude to Pro. Dr. Hualan Chen, my domestic supervisor Director of the National Reference Laboratory of Animal Influenza- Harbin- P.R. China, for her interest and encouragement in my advances;

Thanks to Mrs. Rose Schmitz, Institute for Biometry and Data processing (FUB) for the latest suggestions in statistical analysis.

Special thanks to the Royal Thai Government, European Union and Asia-link for their financial support required for fees, living costs and thesis expenses;

All the staffs at the Laboratory of Meat Hygiene Institute and Institute of Poultry Disease- Free University Berlin, and the Laboratory of Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Chiang Mai University, for their friendly help;

All the staffs at the Regional Center of Veterinary Public Health, Chiang Mai University, for their interest;

All the staffs at the National Reference Laboratory of Animal Influenza- Harbin- P.R. China where I am working for their great support;

I would like to pay respects to my parents (Mr. Changqing Jia and Mrs. Suping Zhao) and my parents-in-law (Mr. Shulin Fu and Mrs. Ruilian Ma). Many thanks to my dear brothers and sister, for their concern and encouragement;

Deep appreciation I wish to express to Mr. TongFu, my great friend, my dear husband, for his love and trust. For everything that has been and everything that is coming.
