ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am most grateful to my thesis advisors: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chusie Trisonthi, Dr. Weerachai Nanakorn, Dr. Kongkanda Chayamarit and Prof. Dr. Henrik Balslev for their kind guidance, support and encouragement throughout the period of this study. I am grateful to my examining committee: Asst. Prof. Dr. Prasit Wangpakapattanawong and Asst. Prof. Dr. Usawadee Chanasut for their helpful suggestion and comments to my thesis.

I would like to thank the Royal Golden Jubilee PhD. Program (PHD/0210/2543), the Thailand Research Fund, for scholarship.

I also thank the directors, curators and staff of following institutions for their kind permission to study specimens and library facilities in their care: Department of Systematic Botany, University of Aarhus, Aarhus (AAU), Denmark; Bangkok Herbarium (BK), Forest Herbarium, Bangkok (BKF), Natural History Museum (BM), Chiang Mai University Herbarium (CMU), Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh (E), Royal Botanic Garden, Kew (K), Linnean Society Herbarium (LINN), Queen Sirikit Botanic Garden Herbarium (QSBG).

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to many individuals and organization for their support and contributions. I also would like to thank the individual participants who agreed to be interviewed in this study and made this work possible.

I am grateful to Chiang Mai University for institutional support and Queen Sirikit Botanic Garden for herbarium and library facilities and for permitting me to carry out my study.

Finally, I would like to especially thank my parents and grandmother for their support and patience throughout all the years of my education. Without the encouragement, support, contributions, and participation of all these people, this study would not have been possible.
