ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude towards all lecturers previously taught me during the years of coursework. Without their insightful instruction, I would not have gained knowledge, wisdom and confidence to complete this independent study.

I am profoundly grateful to my Committee members, Asst. Prof. Dr. Wilailak Saraithong, Dr. Chalathip Wasuwat and Asst. Prof. Somporn Varnado whose literature courses fostered my interest in this topic. I can never thank them enough for their valuable guidance.

My sincere thanks also extend to Ajarn Wayne Deakin and Asst. Prof. Dr. Kiengsak Chettapatanawanich who have read and given valuable comments on the theoretical parts of this study that enabled me to improve this independent study. My gratitude also goes to Mrs. Daungdeang Bouyavong who was very helpful in clarifying the aspect of Lao Literature.

I am thankful to Rony who brought me all relevant books I needed while I wrote this independent study, and Panpamon, my younger sister, who always made photocopies for me without complaining. A special note of appreciation also goes to our Program's staffs for their kind assistance throughout the time I have studied here.

Last of all, my deepest gratitude goes to my family for their kind understanding, endless love and financial support throughout my study.
