ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to sincerely thank my major research advisor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sukon Phanichphant for her constant helpful guidance, kindness, encouragement, time, helpful suggestions and opportunity to improve and understand the truth.

Special thanks to Dr. Pichai Pirakitikulr and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Udom Sriyotha, who serve as my dissertation committee, providing helpful suggestions, during the process of this thesis.

I would like to thank Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University, Thailand for input knowledge and valuable experiences. Graduate School, Chiang Mai University, Center of Excellence for Innovation in Chemistry (PERCH-CIC), Thailand for the financial support throughout my study.

I would like to thank my colleagues and all members of the Nanoscience Research Laboratory (NRL), Chiang Mai University for their fine supports, assistances and cordially friendship.

Finally, I would like to express my gratitude toward my lovely family: dad, mom and sister, for never ending love, encouragements, supports and always standing by my side.
