ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are many wonderful persons who kindly assist, encourage, and support me throughout the dissertation process. Without them, the completion of this dissertation would not have been possible. I would like to acknowledge all women and men who were willing to participate in my study for you all gave me the most precious knowledge of your experience.

A debt of gratitude is owed to Associate Professor Dr. Kasara Sripichyakan, the chairperson of my advisory committee who go along with me on this journey of my PhD study. My heart felt appreciation is for her dedicate time, patience, constant encouragement, and constructive suggestions urged me to learn and think more critically on work and made the successful completion of the journey possible. I would like to extend my gratitude to my co-advisors, Associate Professor Dr. Kannika Kantaruksa and Assistance Professor Dr. Kittikorn Nilmanat for their support, encouragement, and valuable comments.

A special appreciation and gratitude to Professor Dr. Beverley A. O'Brien for valuable comments, friendship, and support during one year of proposal development at University of Alberta, Canada and continuing to be my co-advisor.

My gratitude is extended to my examining committee member, Associate Professor Dr. Warunee Fongkaew, Associate Professor Dr. Chawapornpan Chanprasit, and Dr. Kanokwan Tharawan who shared their scholarly comments and recommendations to strengthen my dissertation.

I wish to express my gratitude to my colleagues at Department of Obstetrical-Gynecological and Midwifery Nursing, Faculty of Nursing, Prince of Songkla University who assisting me with workload during my studying. I would also thank all of my doctoral classmates and friends for their encouragement, friendships, and support. My sincere gratitude extends to my family for giving me whole-hearted encouragement and the best supporters throughout achieving my PhD degree.

I am thankful to the Ministry of Education for providing scholarly support for my study. I also extend my sincere thanks to Thailand Nursing and Midwifery Council and The Nurses' Association of Thailand for the research grant.
