ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My deepest thanks with appreciation are given to my advisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Chaiyavat Chaiyasut who contributes to this thesis for his supervision, his patience, his sustained interest and his helpful guidance.

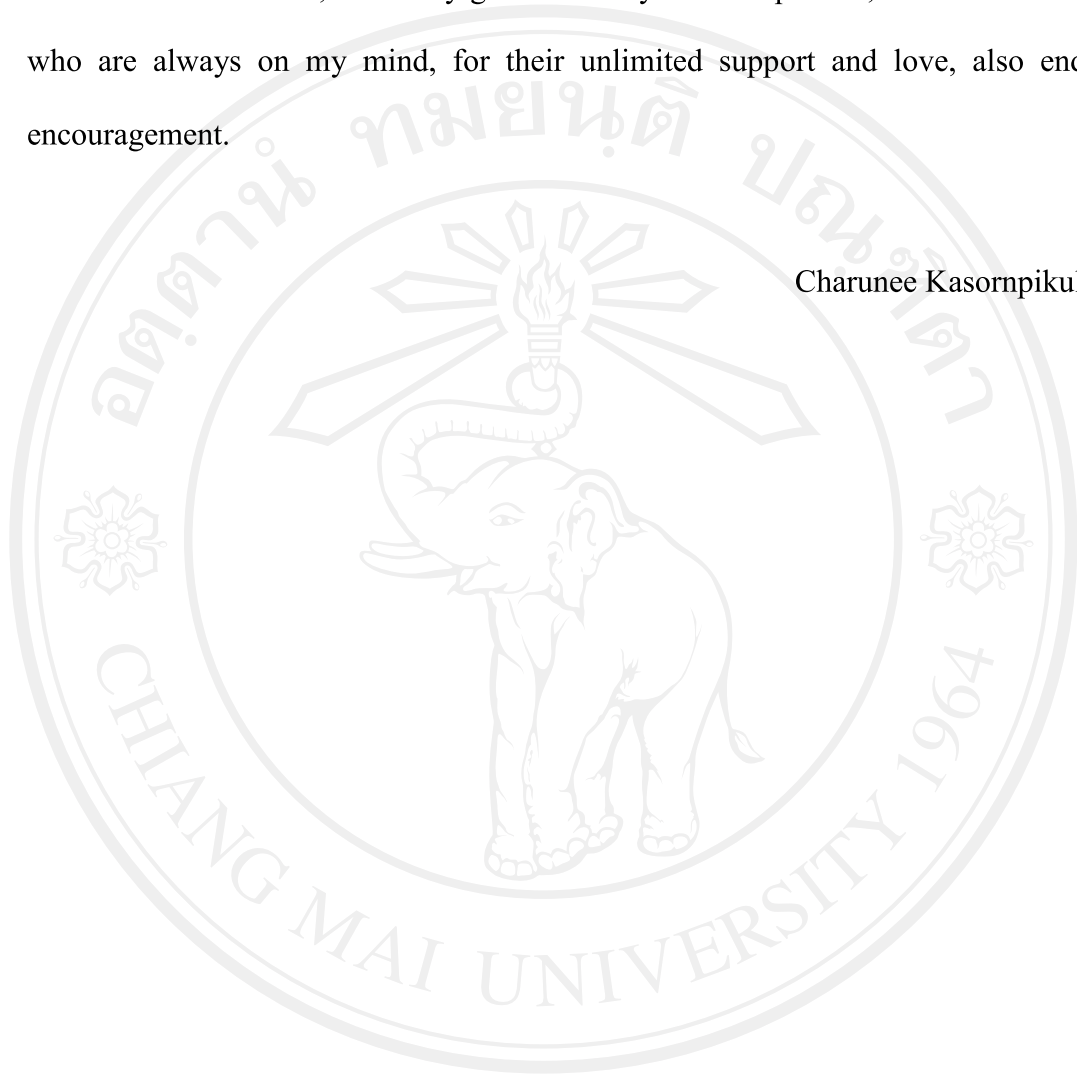

I would like to express my appreciation also, to my co-advisor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Busaban Sirithunyalug, Asst. Prof. Dr. Worapol Aengwanich and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Thanit Pewnim, for their helpful guidance, their sustained interest and suggestion throughout this study.

I would like to thanks Asst. Prof. Dr. Songwut Yotsawimonwat and Prof. Dr. Maitree Suttajit, for their suggestion make me to perceive something more and I had applied it to my study. I am very grateful to my former dean, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vichai Korpraditsakul for his mercy that gives me the chances to do my thesis at Faculty of Animal Science and Agricultural Technology, Silpakorn University.

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all my colleagues and friends for their endless support. My special thanks are due to Dr. Surawat Chalorsantisakul for his kind help to me through.

But most of all, I am very grateful to my beloved parents, Father and Mother, who are always on my mind, for their unlimited support and love, also endless encouragement.
