ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to those who have made significant contributions to the completion of this thesis.

I owe my greatest gratitude to my thesis advisor, Dr. Wetchayan Rangsi. Without his patience and teaching talent, this thesis would not have been possible.

This work contains a number of improvements based on comments and suggestions provided by Maj. Dr. Arsit Boonyaprapasorn, Asst. Prof. Prasong Ingsuwan, Asst. Prof. Dr. Wiwat Klongpanich and Dr. Somchai Pattana. It is my pleasure to express my sincere thanks to them for their generous assistance.

I also wish to thank Asst. Prof. Dr. Pairod Singhatanadgid, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nakorn Tippayawong, Asst. Prof. Dr. Pruet Sakulchangajatai, Asst. Prof. Dr. Piyanun Charoensawan, Asst. Prof. Dr. Chidentree Treesatayapun, Col. Danchai Kongkaew and Asst. Prof. Dr. Chaiya Dumkum for their helpful suggestion concerning the inter journal publication.

My thanks also go to the many teachers and professors who contributed suggestions.

I am indebted to the staffs of the department of the mechanical engineering who supported the places and materials.

I am extremely grateful for the love and support given to me by my family; my parents, my big brother, my grandmother, and my lovely cats.

I would like to thank Miss Sineeporn Pongraveevongsa, Miss Kusayaporn Nakpin, Mr. Krairoek Fanchang and Mrs. Piyamat Bunpen for their support and encouragement.

I would also like to thank my friends who took part in my study life for their assistance and friendship.

Lastly, I extend my sincere thanks to the Graduate School of Chiang Mai University and the Consulting Center for Machine Design and Development for SMEs for granting me the scholarship, which made my doctoral study possible.
