ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation was accomplished by a lot of influential, supportive, and special people. I would like to thank you my committee members including Lecturer Dr. Hunsu Sethabouppha, Assistant Professor Dr. Prathum Soivong, Professor Dr.Reg Williams, Associate Professor Dr. Chawapornpan Chanprasit, Associate Professor Dr. Tipaporn Wonghongkul, and Dr.Phunnapa Kittirattanapaitoon for their expertise, warmest support, willingness to advise, and time which helped me in this dissertation research.

Thank you to Dr. John F. Curry and colleagues for allowing me to adapt the Cognitive Behavior Therapy Manual in the Treatment for Adolescents with Depression Study (TADS) for this study. Thank you to numerous faculties who have guided and educated me over the course of my graduate education. I would like to thank all experts for their suggestions and approval of the instrument utilized in this study. My sincere thanks go to instructor Jakkapop Dhatsuwan for his suggestions on data analysis.

I am grateful to the adolescents who participated in this study. They played a vital role that may impact generations of adolescents. I would like to thank the nurses, teachers, and school administrators of Thammasat Widhayakom High School, Suankularb Rangsit High School, and Horwang Nonthaburi High Schools for participating and supporting this study with enthusiasm.

I owe much gratitude to wonderful persons who helped me with this study: Boonnitee Promprasit, Inthira Sawasdeerak, Craig Vestal, and Suzanne Eggers.

Thank you for your time, warmest support, and efforts with my study. I am grateful to the Faculty of Nursing, Thammasat University for allowing me studying my doctoral program. My very special thanks go to my colleagues at the mental health and psychiatric nursing department, Thammasat University. I am also extremely grateful to Ministry of University Affairs for providing me a scholarship grant for my whole study at the Faculty of Nursing, Chiang Mai University and at School of Nursing, University of Michigan. My deeply thanks also go to the Thailand Nursing Council and the King Prajadhipok and Queen Ramphai Barni Memorial Foundation for providing a partial support grant for this dissertation research.

And lastly and most importantly, to my father and mother, my family, friends, without whom, I could not have done this work. Thank you for supporting, encouraging, and helping me on this study.
