ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to Asst.Prof.Dr. Hathaikan Chowwanapoonpohn, my supervisor, for her kind supervision, encouragement and inspiring discussion throughout this research work from the very beginning until the completion of this thesis.

I would like to express my sincere thank to my co-supervisor, Dr. Puckwipa Suwannaprom and Dr. Penkarn Kanjanarat, for their guidance, discussions and support.

I gratefully acknowledge to the Graduate School, Chiang Mai University for partial financial support. Without their supports, this study would not have been possible. Due acknowledgements are given to the Faculty of Pharmacy, Chiang Mai University, for the general support during this study.

Thanks are also expressed to the Mplus and MSWs for providing all data.

Finally, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to my mother, father, sister and brother for their source of inspiration, tender love, care and endless encouragement.
