ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A number of people have supported me in various aspects of my education. First, I would like to thank my supervisor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Yuwadee Peerapornpisal for giving me the opportunity to work with her on her project. She has trusted my research ideas and provided valuable knowledge, encouragement and resources that have guided me throughout my Master and Ph.D programs. Thank you very much for her love and care.

Next, I would like to thank my co-supervisor, Lect. Dr. Wasu Pathom-aree and Lect. Dr. Jeeraporn Pekkoh for their guidance and encouragement.

I would like to acknowledge my examining committee, Assist. Prof. Dr. Bunyat Montien-art, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Narit Sitasuwan, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chalobol Wongsawad for their helpful suggestions and guidance, as well as their critical reading efforts and constructive comments.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Akihiro Tuji from Department of Botany, National Museum of Nature and Science, Tsukuba, Japan for his warm care and providing his experience in molecular and SEM techniques during my staying in Tsukuba, Japan., to Dr. Chayakorn Pumas for his help in molecular technique, and to Mr. Ekkachai Yana for the statistical analysis.

I am thankful to Assist. Prof. Morakot Suchotiratana for reading and correcting the thesis and publications.

I would like to thank the Graduate School, Chiang Mai University, the Conservation and Utilization of Biodiversity Project, Biology Department, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University and Nanoscience and Nanotechnology Center, Chiang Mai University for providing a research grant.

I warmly thank Mr. Phitsanu Chaimongkol and Ms. Krissana Duangjan for their encouragement and the joyful moment in field sampling around Thailand.

Special thanks go to Ms. Kittiya Phinyo for support and draft preparation. I would like to thank also all current and past colleagues at the Applied Algal Research Laboratory, Microbiology Section, Department of Biology, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University for their assistance, support and most importantly for making the laboratory an enjoyable place.

Last but not least, I would like to thank all the members of my family especially my parents; Mrs. Banyen Prasertsin and Mr. Sompong Prasertsin, Venerable Bhikkhu Janthai Khuntigo, Venerable Bhikkhu Tongpan Jaruwanno and Venerable Bhikkhu Budda Thitisaro. Without their love, support, encouragement and trust in me, I would have never succeeded.

Tippawan Prasertsin
