ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank my supervisor, Dr. Surin Saipanya, for giving me great opportunities, supervisions, valuable suggestions and all supports. She has devoted her time to help me throughout my M.S. period. I would like to special thank to the examining committee, Dr. Sairoong Muangpil and Assoc. Prof. Thapanee Sarakonsri for their helpful advices, comments and suggestions.

I would like to thank all helps and supports from officers and technical staffs of Department of Chemistry and Electron Microscopy Research and Service Center, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University, Chiang Mai, Thailand for all the analysis.

Finally, I would like to give all my thank to my parents, who have given a great cheer to me until my success.
