I dedicate my thesis work to my family, especially my beloved parents who supported me all the way since the beginning of my studies.

I also dedicate this dissertation to all of my friends who shared my difficulties and offered sympathy and compassion during my research.

Finally, this thesis is dedicated to all those who believe in the richness of learning.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There have been many without whom I could not have finished my research. However, I wish to acknowledge a few of them for their outstanding support and assistance during my study. I would like to express the deepest appreciation to my advisor, Lect. Dr. Budsara Limnirankul, Department of Agricultural Economics and Agricultural Extension, Faculty of Agriculture, Chiang Mai University for her enormous support with continuous advice and guidance, right from the initiation of research and on through the preparation of this thesis. Without her supervision and constant help this thesis would not have been possible.

I would like to gratitude to my adviser committee members, Asst. Prof. Dr. Chanchai Sangchyoswat and Asst. Prof. Dr. Yaovarate Chaovanapoonphol for their sharp and smart ideas on my data analysis, suggestion, expertise, and valuable guidance throughout the period of study in Chiang Mai University. I also wish to extend sincere thanks to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aree Cheamuangphan and Lect. Phrek Gypmantasiri, the chairman and member of the examination committee for spending precious time in examining my thesis and give his invaluable comments and advices to improve this thesis and memorable lectures about the Sustainable Agriculture.

Special thanks are also extended to Hue University of Agricultural and Forestry for providing the opportunity to pursue this master degree. I would like to grateful to IDRC-SEARCA for funding during two years of my study. Moreover, many thanks to Mrs. Juthamat Onpraphai and all academic and administrative staffs of Center for Agricultural Resource System Research who have provided me a homely and friendly environment during the study period at Chiang Mai University.

Many thanks in particular to my teachers Assoc. Prof. Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Attachai Jintrawet, Dr. Panomsak Promburom, Lect. Dr. Jirawan Kitchaicharoen, Lect. Dr. Prathanthip Kramol and Asst. Dr. Kamol Ngamsomsuke who gave me a lot of valuable knowledge through subjects in my study program.

I would like to thank the director of Meteorological center in Quang Tri Province, head of Agricultural - Rural development department and Agricultural Extension station of Dakrong district. Thanks to all communes and villages leaders, and respondents in Dakrong district who willingly participated and answered my in-depth interviews, group discussions and survey questionnaires.

I delighted profoundly to show my appreciations for their warm and cordial friendship provide, they are all AGS students – seniors, mates, and junior. Many thanks also go on to all oversea Vietnamese students who study in other faculties for helping and sharing experience in Chiang Mai.

Finally, I would like to thank all of my family and friends who shared my difficulties and offered sympathy and compassion during my research. I wish to record and thank everyone whose names could not be mentioned individually.
