ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to offer my most gratitude to Asst. Prof. Dr. Wanida Penkingarn for her invaluable support, great understanding, and constant encouragement throughout the course of this research. She never hesitated to provide any kind of help and advice. I would not have achieved this far and this thesis would not have been completed without all the support that I have always received from her.

I am exceptionally grateful to my advisor Assoc. Prof. Dr. Jarunee Maneekul for her generous advice and for always being very understanding. I would like to express my sincere thank to Asst.Prof.Dr PongSak Pankaew and Lect. Dr. Uraiwan Hanwong, for their countless hours reviewing my work and giving detailed feedback.

I would like to thank Lect. Dr. Pearl Wattanakul who serve as the Thesis Examination Committee and offer constructive criticisms and advice to improve the values of this thesis.

This gratitude is specially directed to the instructors in Curriculum and Instruction major of Chiang Mai University who provided their knowledge and shared experience with me. Thanks to all my classmates, the Graduate students in Curriculum and Instruction for their encouragement, friendship and support.

My sincere thank also go to Lect. Nattapong Payakkin, Lect. Klitlada Luanmuang, Miss Waraporn Rattakan for their help and support.

Finally, I would like to express my deepest appreciation and gratitude to my family members, especially Lect. Thammarong Singyoocharoen and Mr. Chayarop Apichai, my dear nephew for their deep understanding, support, encouragement and patience. I would like to dedicate this achievement to them.
