ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of my thesis would be impossible without help from many people, whom I would like to thank. I would like to express my sincere thanks to my advisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Somporn Chantara, for her invaluable supervision, comment thesis writing and constant inspiration throughout this study.

I thank Dr. Wan Wiriya and Dr. Sopittaporn Sillapapiromsuk for their guidance and training of using ion chromatograph. Thanks to Mrs. Ing-on Chaisri and Mrs. Dujduan Sangboon for their helps and guidance in the lab work. I also thank Ms. Rungruang Janta for her help in the field work.

I gratefully acknowledge Environmental Chemistry Research Laboratory (ECRL), Chemistry Department, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University for the provision of research facilities. My thanks also go to all members in the ECRL for their help and useful suggestions.

Finally, I would like to give special thanks to my parents who have always loved me and have given me endless support and inspiration.
