ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There have been many without whom I could not have finished my project. However, I wish to acknowledge a few of them for their outstanding support and assistance during my study. I would like to express the deepest appreciation to my committee chairperson, Asst. Prof. Dr. Kanda Whangchai for her enormous support with continuous advice and guidance, right from the initiation of the project and on the preparation of this thesis. Without her supervision and constant help this dissertation would not have been possible.

I would like to thank my committee members, Asst. Prof. Dr. Jamnong Uthaibutra and Dr. Suttiwal Setha for their contribution in stimulating suggestions and encouragement, helped me to coordinate my project especially in writing of report for publishing in an international journal and this thesis.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation and thankfulness to the member of my examining committee; Asst. Prof. Dr. Adisak Joomwong and Dr. Sarunya Valyasevi for their support and improvement of my manuscript dissertation.

In addition, a thank you to Professor Dr. Hiroshi Gemma and Professor Dr. Sumio Sugaya and member of Pomology laboratory, the University of Tsukuba, Japan, who kindly advised all topics of my research and provided reagents and equipment I have needed to do research in Japan.

Completing this work would have been all the more difficult were it not for the support and friendship provided by the other members of the Plant Physiology and Postharvest Technology laboratory in Chiang Mai University. In particular I would like to thank Dr. Pornanan Boonkorn for the suggestions and teaching me in the part of enzyme analysis of this work. I also thank Postharvest Technology Research Institute, CMU, for providing the knowledge and experience and allowing me to use some instruments. I thank Miss.Nantinee Srijumpa and everybody of Department of Agriculture for their kindly help and giving good opportunity.

Finally, I would like to thanks my family, especially my husband, Sunawakarn Buddom for his continuous inspiration and also taking care of me and my daughter, Kanyanat Buddom during my study. Also grateful thanks to my parents and all of my family and friends who shared my difficulties and offered sympathy and compassion during my research.
