ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this thesis could not have been accomplished without the support of many important individuals. Firstly, a special gratitude to the chairman, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Somsak Phuwipadawat, whose contribution in stimulating suggestions, examination and encouragement, helped me to coordinate my research. Also, I would like to show my gratitude to the rest of my thesis committee: Asst. Prof. Dr Aphichat Mekbangwan and Dr. Nampueng Intanate, for their suggestions, insightful comments, and research facilities. Without their precious support, my Ph.D. study would not be successful.

My sincere thanks also goes to Mr. Sin-Ad Lumpoonpong, the ex-director of Chiang Mai PEASO 1, Dr. Poramin Aridech, the Dean of Education Faculty of Chiang Rai Rajabhat University, Dr. Supaporn Kkittiratchadanon, the Inspector of Chiang Mai Primary Education Area Office, Area 1, Dr. Terdpong Chaipong, vice-president of Chiang Rai PEASO 4, and Mrs. Pimpisa Subanpong, Plan and Policy Analyst of Office of The Basic Education Commission for giving the great suggestions for every step in monitoring the research instruments.

Furthermore, I have to express my appreciation to teachers and school administrators of Udomsittisukha School Kanchanaburi PEASO 8, Baan Huay Rai Samakkhi Secondary School Chiang Rai PEASO 3, Ban Muang Kued School Chiang Mai PEASO 2, Ban Mueng Karn School Chiang Rai PEASO 4 and Ban Namphuron School, Nan PEASO 2 who provided me with valuable information for the development of Career Education Model for Highland and Remote Area Schools.

Moreover, I am appreciative to the school administrators and teachers at Banpayaprai, Mae Fa Luang District, Chiang Rai, for giving me several opportunities in trying out the model and reflecting the result of the study.

More importantly, I would like to thank the Mae Fah Luang Foundation in supporting me by giving a scholarship throughout my Ph.D. study. In particular, I am grateful to my parents and all other members of the Piyasants family for the encouragement in my studies.

Last but not the least; I would like to thank other individuals that I cannot mention in here. With their precious support and all the advantages in this study, I am grateful to all of the teachers throughout my educational life for enlightening me.
