ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would never have been able to finish my thesis without the guidance of my committee members, help from my friends, and support from my family.

First and foremost, I am highly appreciative to the Regional Center for Social Sciences and Sustainable Development (RCSD) for granting me a full-scholarship to pursue my Master's Degree at Chiang Mai University. I would then like to express my deepest gratitude to my advisor, Assistant Professor Dr. Chusak Wittayapak and co-advisor Lecturer Dr. Mukdawan Sakboon for their valuable teaching, patience, support and guidance of my thesis for three years. I also would like to thank my thesis examination chairman Dr. Louis Lebel, who gave me clear comments, suggestions and valuable reading materials on my thesis. I am also sincerely grateful to Dr. Shirley Worland, who not only edited my thesis, but also guided my research from when I was designing my thesis proposal until now.

My special thanks goes to Lecturer Dr. Chayan Vaddhanaphuti, Professor Dr. Anan Ganjannapan, Dr. Phrek Gypmantasiri, Professor Dr. Yos Santasombat, Lecturer Dr. Amporn Jirattikorn, Lecturer Dr. Prasit Leepreecha and Assistant Professor Dr. Wasan Panyagaew for helping me to develop my critical thinking and background in Development Studies. I would also further thank from the bottom of my heart Ms. Muttika Thungsuphuti, who used to be the department academic support officer and now is department secretary, she is like a sister who helped me solve some difficulties that I encountered in the school and made me feel that RCSD is a family that always gave their helping hands to every student.

My deepest thanks also go to Sabrina Gyorvary, who encouraged and supported me to apply to the RCSD program to carry on with my further study on development studies and without her, I wouldn't have this opportunity to pursue my study in Thailand. My sincere thanks also goes to my best friends Mackenzie Greene-Powell and Patrick Dowd, who offered their great comments and suggestions on my thesis.

I would specially like to thank all my research participants, particularly, my gratitude goes to the local herders and my Tibetan and Han Chinese friends, who contributed their great assistance and mental support to accomplish my fieldwork and made this thesis possible.

Last, but not least, I want to thank my beloved parents, they are the source of my love and energy to help me complete this thesis. My love and gratitude can hardly be expressed in words.

Ka Ji Jia
