ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my deepest and sincere thankfulness to my advisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Thunwadee Ritthiwigrom, for her valuable instruction, expert guidance, excellent suggestions and support throughout my years of research which are more than I can describe here. Everything will always be in my mind.

I am extremely grateful to Asst. Prof. Dr. Kongkiat Trisuwan and Dr. Suwaporn Luangkamin for their kind encouragement, useful advice, helpful comments and discussions throughout my study.

I am grateful to Prof. Stephen G. Pyne, Asst. Prof. Dr. Sarot Cheenpracha and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Surat Laphookhieo for his kind help, encouragement and useful comment during the write up of the publications. I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Surat Laphookhieo's research group, Mae Fah Luang University for antibacterial testing and recording the specific optical rotation. I am very grateful to Department of Chemistry, University of Wollongong for recording the HRMS data.

I would like to thank Dr. Sumalee Kamchonwongpaisan and BIOTEC for the cytotoxic, antimalarial and anti-TB testing. I would also like to acknowledge my sincere thanks to any persons whose names are not mentioned here but who have supported me directly or indirectly in completion of this thesis.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my colleagues in sweet glass laboratory for providing me the good opportunity to work with them.

I am indebted to Mr. Sutthichart Kerdphon and Miss Kanlaya Pingmuang for downloading a lot of publications and also thanks to all my friends whose name are not listed here that contributed to the success of this work.

My appreciation is also expressed to Human Resource Development in Science Project (Science Achievement Scholarship of Thailand, SAST) through the Graduate School, Chiang Mai University for financial supports and Department of Chemistry, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University is also acknowledged.

Finally, special thanks are address to my family for their unceasing love, encouragement and moral support throughout my education.

Atchara Jaidee
