ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those who gave me the possibility to my study and this research.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Faculty of Economic, Chiang Mai University for providing with this opportunity to undertake this study. I would like to express my extreme sincere gratitude and appreciation to Dr. Pisit Leeatam, Dean of Faculty of Economics and all the lecturers from CMU who came and taught us for this Master Course.

I want to show grate thanks to Yangon University of Economics and Dr. Thida Kyu, Head of Department, Department of economics that give a chance us to joint this program.

My heartfelt appreciation must be given to Lect. Dr. Anaspree Chaiwan, my kind and helpful advisor, for her useful comments, remarks and encouragement. Without her continuous and consistent guidance, this thesis could not be completed in proper way. It is a great pleasure to express my high and special gratitude to my co-advisor, Lect. Dr. Chaiwat Nimanusornkul who had provided the guidance for the econometric analyses.

Moreover, it is a great pleasure to acknowledge my deepest thanks and gratitude to the Bangkok Bank which support me to attend this valuable program.

Moreover, I offer my deep gratitude and thanks to all the staffs at the Faculty of Economics, CMU, for their help and guidance during my study and thesis completion. And I would like to acknowledge the help, encouragement and insight that I have received from all person who did not mention in this acknowledgment.

Last but not the least, my thanks goes to my beloved parents, brothers and sister for their great confidence and dearest love in me all these years.
