ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to a number of individuals and institutions, without whom the completion of this thesis would not have been possible. First and foremost, I would like to thank Asst. Prof. Dr. Sant Suwatcharapinun, my thesis advisor, who has been providing guidance on how to implement this research, and importantly his unexhausted encouragement and positive motivation that mentally strengthened my courage to stay until the completion of this research work. I would like also to thank Asst. Prof. Dr. Angunthip Srisuwan, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nawit Ongsavangchai, and Dr. Pinai Sirikiatikul, who are the advisory committees, for their indispensable guiding and critique to improve this research.

Special thanks also go to Chiang Mai University and its Graduate Scholarship for AEC Students which offers me the tuition fees for study here and its Graduate Research Scholarships that offered financial support to this research. Without this generous financial support, I may not be able to continue this research until completion. Thanks also go Royal University of Fine Arts in Phnom Penh who offered this scholarship opportunity to me.

I would like to thank also Mr. Roger Nelson for this suggestion on the topic of this research, and especially his effort in proof-reading this final work, Mr. Pen Sereypagna, manager of Vann Molyvann project for allowing me to participate in its Summer School program in 2015 which helped me to engage in the study of modern architecture in Cambodia, Ms. Ester Van Der Laan who is a manager of Khmer Architecture Tour, and my friend Vong Kalyan for their generously sharing of documented house surveys.

Finally, I would like to thank my family, friends, and staffs of faculty of architecture of Chiang Mai University, whom gave me financial support, inspiration and all kind of supports.
