ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank all the people who contributed in some way to the work described in this thesis. First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to my thesis advisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Sutthathorn Chairuangstri of the Environmental Science Program at Chiang Mai University. The door to Dr. Chairuangstri office was always open whenever I ran into a trouble spot or had a question about my research or writing. I appreciate her vast knowledge and skill in many areas, and her assistance in writing reports, which have on occasion made me "GREEN" with envy. I would like to thank the co advisors of my committee, Asst. Prof. Dr. Schradh Saenton and Asst. Prof. Dr. Arunothai Jampeetong for the assistance they provided at all levels of the research project.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge the Thailand International Cooperation Agency (TICA), for providing financial assistance to accomplish my master degree comfortably. I express my sincere thanks to Assistant Professor Dr. Somporn Chantara, chairperson of Environmental Science Program, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University for extending all the necessary facilities in the program, generous help and for her hospitality. I gratefully acknowledge Miss. Prusanee Sriponwaree, Secretary, Environmental Science Program, for her infinite assistance throughout all study period. Thanks also go to the Assoc. Prof. Dr. Prasak Thavornnyutikarn, Asst. Prof. Dr. Chitchol Phalaraksh, Asst. Prof. Dr. Thaneeya Chetianukornkul, Asst. Prof. Dr. Wanaruk Saipunkaew Asst. Prof. Dr. Decha Thapanya and Dr. Wan Wiriya for their continuous support and backing during the study.

A great deal of appreciation goes to Plant Physiology and Post-Harvest Technology Laboratory (PPPHTL) and Aquatic Biology Research Lab, Department of Biology, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University, for providing necessary infrastructure, instrumentation and resources to accomplish my research work successfully.

I sincerely acknowledge the help of Miss. Tararag Pincam, Mr. Krit Sirikulrat, Mr. Siroje Tanma, Mr. Aminullah Yousafzai, Mr. Mohammad Zahir Akbari, Mr. Hassaan Abdul Muhsin, Mr. Tawan Terdthi and Mr. Oak who are all important to the successful completion of my research work as well as their supports during my study.

Last but not the least I wish to thank all members of the Environmental Science Program, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University, for encouragement and support during my graduate study and none of this would have been possible without unconditioned love and helps of my family members who have always given me inspiration and endless support.

At the end of my thesis, it is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.
