ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation was achieved by great kindness from Prof. Emeritus Dr. Anurak Panyanuwat who was my main advisor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Choocheep Puthaprasert, and Asst. Prof. Dr. Ruetinan Samuttai as my co-advisors in that they both kindly offered me knowledge, valuable advice, and correction with great attention. My thanks and appreciation were given to all of them.

I would also like to thank Assoc. Prof. Dr. Tay Chiengchee, my examination committee chairperson, and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Somsak Phuvipadawat, my examination committee member, for their kind help in giving several advices and comments in order for this dissertation to be more complete and beneficial. I was thankful to all experts for giving me information on synthesizing indicators, proposing guidelines for developing the evaluation model, including giving advice in developing research tools. Thank you administrators, teacher parties, and students affiliated with Uttaradit Primary Educational Service Area Office 1 for their help in collecting data and trying out the evaluation model.

I was grateful to the director of Uttaradit Primary Educational Service Area Office 1, my colleagues – educational supervisors affiliated with Uttaradit Primary Educational Service Area Office 1, and my Ph.D. classmates majoring in Research and Development in Education, especially Dr. Sripraphai Inchaithep who was greatly helpful in sharing knowledge and gave encouragement in completing this dissertation.

Finally, I sincerely thanked my parents and teachers who provided me knowledge and creative ideas. They were considered the models who nourished good deeds for the researcher. Thank you the Rakpong's and the Nakhakhet's members who were key encouragement for the researcher.
