

Enhancing Wellbeing and Independence for Young People with Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties

Lives Lived Well

Andrew Colley and Julie Tilbury
with Simon Yates

ROUTLEDGE

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
1 Introduction	1
Part I	7
2 What do we mean by wellbeing?	9
3 What do we mean by independence?	20
4 Wellbeing and independence in international and UK national policy	28
Part II	43
5 An introduction to the Lives Lived Well surveys	45
6 The Lives Lived Well surveys: wellbeing	50
7 The Lives Lived Well surveys: independence	76
8 The Lives Lived Well surveys: wellbeing and independence beyond school	105
9 The Lives Lived Well surveys: the link between policy and practice	121

Part III

Focus on Chailey Heritage School	131
10 Welcome to Chailey Heritage School!	133
11 Supporting wellbeing at Chailey Heritage School	143
12 Supporting independence at Chailey Heritage School	173
13 Conclusion	187
The Lives Lived Well UK questionnaire	190
The Lives Lived Well international questionnaire	203
Index	211