

Evolving Families

IDENTITIES, PRACTICES AND EDUCATION OF EVOLVING MULTICULTURAL FAMILIES IN ASIA-PACIFIC

Edited by Jan Gube, Fang Gao and Miron Bhowmik

Contents

List of tables	vii
List of figures	viii
List of contributors	ix
Foreword by series editor	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
1 Cultural diversity in communities and schooling in Asia-Pacific	1
JAN GUBE, FANG GAO, AND MIRON BHOWMIK
PART I
Resettlement and identities	13
2 Socializing strategies, family language policies, and practices: An autoethnographic study of a transcultural family in southwest China	15
GE WANG AND SHIZHOU YANG
3 Negotiating hyphenated identities in diaspora: Indigenous Chakma immigrants from Bangladesh in Melbourne	31
URMEE CHAKMA
4 Bhutanese refugees' perspectives on the meaning of integration into Australian society	49
SUBHASH KOIRALA AND DAVID KEMBER
5 Navigating academic and career pathways in the era of neoliberalism: Educational trajectories of first-generation immigrant youth in Japan	68
YUKA KITAYAMA AND KIYOKO IMAI

PART II

Family and community resources 85

- 6 Minority family and community resources: Funds of knowledge and university access and choice 87
FANG GAO AND BOB ADAMSON

- 7 Inclusive parental involvement for multicultural education: A case study from Thailand 100
NONGYAO NAWARAT AND NANNAPHAT SAENGHONG

- 8 Whole-community approach as a way to support Indigenous learners in urban areas in Taiwan 117
YULIA NESTEROVA

- 9 Exploring the education of international students in a Korean elementary school: The case of foreign-born students in Gyeonggi province 134
KYUJOO SEOL

- 10 Community connections for equity and inclusion: Toward a research agenda 157
JAN GUBE, MIRON BHOWMIK, AND NICOLE M. Y. TANG

PART III

Conclusion 175

- 11 Family diversity in Asian contexts: Local multiculturalisms for new contexts 177
KERRY J. KENNEDY

- Index* 185

Tables

1.1	Terms of ethnocultural and national minority groups	3
3.1	Participants' profiles	37
4.1	Bhutanese interview participants	56
5.1	Six forms of capital suggested by Yosso (2005)	70
6.1	Student participants' background information	90
9.1	Types of multicultural students	136
9.2	Changes in the number of multicultural students (person)	137
9.3	Student composition and ratio in S Elementary School (as of March, 2016)	141
9.4	Student distribution of international classes in S Elementary School	141
9.5	Student distribution of international classes in S Elementary School (by nationality)	141
9.6	Overview of international Class 1 observation	142
9.7	Overview of international Class 2 observation	142
9.8	Overview of interviewees	143
9.9	Main questions of the interview	143
9.10	Overview of analysis	144

Figures

6	Minority family and community resources: Faculty of knowledge and university access and choice	65
	SAKSHI AND BOB SODERBY
7	Inclusive parental involvement for multicultural education: A case study from Thailand	68
	WONGTARO NAWIRAT AND WONGNARAT SAKYONGKOL
4.1	Mode of integration	65
10.1	Learning and teaching model for equity and inclusion	163