

SOCIAL INEQUALITY

Louise Warwick-Booth

3rd edition

CONTENTS

List of case studies, learning tasks and tables	xiii
About the author	xviii
Introduction	1
1 WHAT IS SOCIAL INEQUALITY?	6
Key learning outcomes	6
Overview of the chapter	6
Conceptualising social inequality	6
Defining social inequality	7
Measuring social inequality	9
Measuring inequality	10
Using poverty lines	10
Examining incomes at country level	11
Comparing economic growth	11
Comparing development	12
Looking at wages	12
Measuring wealth	13
Looking at social exclusion	13
Ongoing debates	14
Defining intersectionality	14
The global context of inequality	16
Patterns of contemporary inequality	17
Subjective inequality	18
Theoretical debates about inequality	19
Why does inequality matter?	22
Inequality results in negative outcomes	22
Inequality generates political instability	22
Brexit: the result of inequality?	23
Inequality impacts upon the most vulnerable	23
Inequality slows economic growth	24
Inequality affects subjective wellbeing	24
Why does inequality persist?	24
Summary of key points	28
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	28
Further reading	29
2 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: SOCIAL CLASS	30
Key learning outcomes	30
Overview of the chapter	30

What is social class and why is it important?	31
Features of socially stratified societies	31
Defining social class	32
Measuring social class	34
Contemporary social classes in the UK	36
Chavs: the new underclass?	37
Social mobility	40
Why social mobility is hard to achieve in the UK	40
Social mobility: the British great escape?	41
The importance of class endures	42
Explaining social class divisions	43
Class position and inequality	45
Social status	45
Social status and the perpetuation of inequality	46
Explaining differences in social status	48
Social status, class and inequality	48
Inequalities and stratification in contemporary society	49
The stratification of life experience	50
Summary of key points	51
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	52
Further reading	52
3 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: EMPLOYMENT	53
Key learning outcomes	53
Overview of the chapter	53
Employment as a social division	54
Example inequalities in employment	55
Unemployment	56
Gender and work	58
Work and age	60
Social class, skills and work	61
Work and ethnicity	62
Work, health and disability	63
Disabilities and inequalities in employment	65
COVID-19 and work	66
Intersectional inequalities associated with employment	68
Explaining the inequalities associated with employment	69
Summary of key points	72
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	72
Further reading	73
4 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: YOUTH AND AGE	74
Key learning outcomes	74
Overview of the chapter	74
Age	74

Age as a social construction	75
Changing patterns of youth and age	76
Media concerns about the ageing population	76
Ways in which an ageing society is positive	78
Media concerns about youth	78
The beginning of the lifecourse and inequalities	80
Inequalities in childhood	80
The end of the lifecourse and inequalities	81
Inequalities in later life	81
Early life chances and older-age vulnerability	81
Challenges for millennials	83
Brexit, age and geographical inequalities	85
Adolescence, gender, transition and later-life outcomes	86
University education and inequalities	87
Social policy: promoting equality across the lifecourse?	89
Explaining age-based divisions	90
Ageism and associated inequalities	92
Inequalities in end-of-life care	93
Summary of key points	95
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	95
Further reading	96
5 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: HEALTH AND DISABILITY	97
Key learning outcomes	97
Overview of the chapter	97
Defining health inequalities	98
Poverty and health inequalities	99
The social gradient of health	100
Geographical variations within UK health outcomes	100
The social model of health	101
Disability as a social inequality	102
Disability and health inequalities	103
Social divisions and health outcomes	104
Explaining health inequalities and their causes	105
Lifestyle factors	105
Psychosocial factors	107
Status syndrome	108
Economic inequalities and health	108
Lay understandings	108
Lay understandings and health inequalities	109
The importance of place for health	109
Social determinants and health inequalities	110
Commission on Social Determinants of Health (CSDH)	110
Health service access, usage and inequalities	110
Example inequalities in healthcare	111

Globalisation as a cause of health inequalities	112
Globalisation and its impact upon health	112
Solutions to health inequalities	114
Social policy approaches	114
Policy to tackle health inequalities	115
Educational approaches	117
Community-level action	118
Summary of key points	120
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	120
Further reading	121
6 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: GENDER	122
Key learning outcomes	122
Overview of the chapter	122
What is gender?	123
Defining gender	123
Inequalities experienced by transgender individuals	125
Gender, legislation and inequalities	127
Gender inequalities	128
Defining gender inequality	128
Women and inequalities: the evidence	128
Women and socio-economic outcomes	130
Gender and power	132
Women and powerlessness	132
Women and sexual assault	132
Women and COVID-19	133
Women's empowerment	134
Me Too	134
Glasgow Equal Pay Campaign	134
Explaining gender inequality	135
What about men?	139
Inequalities experienced by men	139
Opportunities and benefits of gender equality for all	142
Summary of key points	143
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	144
Further reading	144
7 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: SEXUALITIES	146
Key learning outcomes	146
Overview of the chapter	146
What do we mean by sexualities?	147
Defining sexualities	147
The social construction of sexuality	147
The sexualisation of culture	149
Selling sex: stigma, taboo and inequalities	150
Sexuality and institutionalised heterosexuality	152

Labels and sexuality	153
Inequalities associated with sexualities	155
Example inequalities experienced by lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender groups	156
Sexuality and inequalities in global policy approaches	158
Intersectionality	160
Explaining sexuality as a social division	162
Summary of key points	166
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	166
Further reading	166
8 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: ETHNICITY	168
Key learning outcomes	168
Overview of the chapter	168
What is ethnicity?	168
Contemporary examples of segregation	170
Ethnic social stratification	173
Ethnicity, social stratification and inequalities	173
How can we measure ethnic inequalities?	174
Ethnicity and inequalities: the evidence	176
Example of contemporary racism – Islamophobia	176
Politics and ethnic tolerance	179
Health inequalities	179
Racism and health inequalities	181
Explaining ethnic inequalities	181
Examples of institutional racism	185
Social policy failures	186
Social policy failures and ethnic inequalities	186
Overview of sociological contributions	187
Summary of key points	189
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	189
Further reading	190
9 SOCIAL DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITY: MIGRATION	191
Key learning outcomes	191
Overview of the chapter	191
What is migration?	192
Defining and measuring migration	192
Emigration	195
Migration, refugees and panic	196
Social policy, migration and inequalities	198
Inequalities associated with migration	201
Explaining the inequalities associated with migration	204
Summary of key points	209
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	210
Further reading	210

10	GLOBALISATION AND THE GLOBAL DIMENSIONS OF INEQUALITY	211
	Key learning outcomes	211
	Overview of the chapter	211
	Defining globalisation	212
	Defining globalisation	212
	Theorising globalisation	215
	Globalisation debated: is globalisation positive or negative?	216
	Globalisation and economics	218
	Globalisation, the global economy and inequalities	218
	Global trade: the power of transnational corporations	220
	Big Pharma and health inequalities	221
	Global consumerism	223
	Globalisation and consumption	223
	Examples of inequalities in consumption	224
	Global media	225
	Global politics: global governance	226
	Ecological unsustainability	227
	Inequalities and global rubbish	228
	Migration	230
	Global brain drain and inequalities	230
	Global inequality	231
	Has inequality increased or decreased?	232
	Is globalisation responsible for increased inequality?	232
	Why is globalisation disappointing in development and economic terms?	232
	What is the future of global economic inequality?	233
	Summary of key points	234
	List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	235
	Further reading	235
11	THE GLOBAL SOCIAL POLICY ARENA AND INEQUALITY	237
	Key learning outcomes	237
	Overview of the chapter	237
	What is global governance?	238
	Studying global governance	238
	Why do we need global governance?	238
	Challenges for global policy makers	239
	Key global policy makers	242
	Positive global governance	245
	Global goals	245
	The focus on health	247
	Commission on Social Determinants of Health (2008)	247
	The work of non-governmental organisations	248

Negative global governance	249
Policy directions	249
Development and aid	250
The myth of aid?	251
Gender inequality	252
Governance of those governing	253
Increasing exclusion	253
Global ecological problems	254
Global economic issues	255
Global resistance	255
How does global governance relate to inequality?	257
Austerity	258
Questionable commitment to tackling inequalities?	258
Summary of key points	259
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	260
Further reading	260
12 SOCIAL POLICY AND ITS RELATIONSHIP TO INEQUALITY: FACILITATOR OR POTENTIAL SOLUTION?	261
Key learning outcomes	261
Overview of the chapter	261
Introduction to social policy	262
Defining social policy	262
Welfare policy	265
Important debates in policy related to welfare	266
How do ideological and political values impact on inequalities?	271
Fiscal policy	272
The impact of the 2008 financial crisis	274
Austerity, fiscal policy and inequalities	275
Debt advice	276
Policy to encourage people to take up work	277
Policy to encourage uptake of work: facilitator of inequality?	278
Increasing social mobility through policy	279
Policy barriers to the achievement of social mobility: facilitator of inequality?	279
Poverty and state approaches: social policy	279
Policy approaches to tackle inequality: policy as a solution?	280
Policy, capitalism and inequality	280
Policy direction serving to facilitate inequalities	281
Fiscal policy and financial regulation	283
Fiscal policy and lack of regulation: facilitator of inequality?	283
Summary of key points	284
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	285
Further reading	285

13 SOLUTIONS TO INEQUALITY: HOW DO WE CREATE A MORE EQUAL GLOBAL SOCIETY?	286
Key learning outcomes	286
Overview of the chapter	286
What is the challenge?	287
Is technology the answer?	288
Is social policy the answer?	290
The need for a new economic model and associated social policy approach	291
Broader policy changes required to address inequalities	292
Policies to achieve health for everyone	294
Reform of global governance	295
An alternative view of poverty?	296
Limitations with current approaches to tackling poverty	296
What about more development and growth?	299
A fairer, better and different type of economic growth	300
What does more inclusive development look like?	301
Creating greater equality requires ideological change	301
Can we all live a good life within the limits of our resources?	302
Expert and public knowledge differences	303
Protests and social movements as mechanisms to generate a more equal future	306
Social movements, protest and greater equality?	306
A more peaceful and stable world?	307
Barriers to ending war and creating more equality	307
The future of social inequality	307
Summary of key points	309
List of questions to stimulate debate and reflection	310
Further reading	310
Glossary	312
References	321
Index	396