

LAW AND JUSTICE AROUND THE WORLD

A COMPARATIVE APPROACH

Mikaila Mariel Lemonik Arthur

สำนักหอสมุดมหาวิทยาลัยเชียงใหม่

pb
978-0-520-250

บ 964.706
0 114848
; 228554X

LAW AND JUSTICE AROUND THE WORLD

A Comparative Approach

Mikaila Mariel Lemonik Arthur

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

978-0-520-250
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations and Tables ix
Acknowledgments xi
Preface xiii

- 1. The Study of Comparative Law and Justice 1
  - Chapter Goals 1
  - Why Study Comparative Law and Justice? 2
  - The Roots of the Field 6
  - Legal Culture versus Legal Structure 9
  - A Quick Introduction to Legal Systems 11
  - Case Study 1.1: An International Child Custody Dispute 13
  - Conclusion 15
- 2. World Legal Systems 16
  - Chapter Goals 16
  - The Rule of Law 17
  - Defining Legal Systems 19
    - Common Law 20
  - Case Study 2.1: Cannibalism and Common Law 23
    - Civil Law 24
    - Theocratic Law 26
    - Authoritarian Law 28
    - Traditional Law 29
    - Other Legal Systems 31
  - Change and Continuity 32
  - Case Study 2.2: The Aztec Legal System 33
  - Conclusion 36
- 3. The Organization of State Power 38
  - Chapter Goals 38
  - What Is a State? 39
    - Types of Government 42
  - Case Study 3.1: Indigenous Sovereignty 44
  - Branches of Government 47
  - Voting and Elections 50
  - Who Votes? 56
    - Who Runs? 62
  - Conclusion 63
- 4. Crime and the Global World 65
  - Chapter Goals 65
  - Why Do Crime Rates Vary? 66
    - Cultural Explanations for Crime 67
    - The Impact of Economic and Social Factors on Crime 67
    - Crime and the Legal System 69
  - How Do We Measure Crime? 70
    - How Do Crime Rates Vary? 74
  - Criminalization 75
    - Decriminalization 78
  - Case Study 4.1: The Portuguese Drug Strategy 79
  - Cross-Border Crime 81
    - International Crime 81
    - Transnational Crime 82
    - Terrorism 88
  - Conclusion 89
- 5. Law Enforcement 91
  - Chapter Goals 91
  - The History of Law Enforcement 92
    - Defining Modern Policing 93
  - Cross-National Variations in Policing Practices 100
    - Organizational Structures 101
    - Policing Styles 105
    - Police-Military Relations 111
  - International Police Cooperation 115
  - Case Study 5.1: Tracking the Pink Panthers 117
  - Conclusion 119
- 6. Resolving Disputes 121
  - Chapter Goals 121
  - Dispute Resolution in Historical Perspective 123
  - Types of Disputes, Types of Law 126
  - Contemporary Dispute Resolution Systems 128
    - Dispute Resolution in Common Law 128
    - Dispute Resolution in Civil Law 133
    - Dispute Resolution in Theocratic Law 137
    - Traditional Dispute Resolution Practices 139
  - Case Study 6.1: Traditional Courts in South Africa 140
    - Dispute Resolution under Authoritarianism 142

Criminal Procedure in Comparative Perspective	143
Fairness and Impartiality	143
The Presumption of Innocence	143
Evidentiary Rules	144
Confessions and Self-Incrimination	145
The Right to Counsel	146
Other Factors	148
Case Study 6.2: The Trials of Amanda Knox	149
Conclusion	151
7. Punishment and Social Control	155
Chapter Goals	155
Why Do Societies Punish?	156
Deterrence and Crime Control	157
Revenge and Retribution	159
Rehabilitation	160
Reconciliation	162
Case Study 7.1: Transitional Justice in Rwanda	163
How Has Punishment Changed over Time?	166
What Types of Punishment Do Societies Use?	169
Prisons	169
Control-in-Freedom	172
Case Study 7.2: Prisons and Punishment in Norway	173
Financial and Other Sanctions	176
Corporal Punishment	177
Capital Punishment	179
What Factors Shape National Differences in Punishment Practices?	182
Conclusion	186
8. Family Law	188
Chapter Goals	188
What Is a Family?	190
Forming a Family	191
Marriage and Union Formation	192
The Legal Status of Children	199
Case Study 8.1: Marriage, Children, and Surnames	200
Regulating Reproduction	203
Ending Family Relationships	207
Ending Unions	207
Child Custody and Parental Rights	211
Conclusion	213
9. Legal Rights	217
Chapter Goals	217
What Are Legal Rights?	219
The Most Severe Violations	220
Legal Rights: A Tour	221
The Right to Privacy	221
The Right to Expression	226
The Right to Conscience	229
Case Study 9.1: Intellectual and Academic Freedom in Qatar	233
The Right to Subsistence	235
Law and Equality	240
Conclusion	243
10. Global Justice	245
Chapter Goals	245
What Is International Law?	246
How Is International Law Enforced?	247
Institutions of Global Justice	248
The International Criminal Court	249
The United Nations and the International Court of Justice	252
Citizenship and Statelessness	254
Case Study 10.1: Chevron in Ecuador	255
Conclusion	264
11. Law and Culture	267
Chapter Goals	267
The Concept of Legal Culture	268
Cultural Universalism, Cultural Relativism, and Cultural Pluralism	272
Conflicts in Law and Culture	275
The Cultural Defense to Crime	279
Legal Cultures of Childhood	287
Case Study 11.1: Child Soldiers	288
Conclusion	293
12. Considering Comparative Law and Justice	296
Chapter Goals	296
Why Compare?	298
The Future of Law	301
Case Study 12.1: Regulating the Environment	305
Conclusion	310
Glossary	313
Works Cited	321
Index	343