

ANIMALS AS THE THIRD IN RELATIONAL PSYCHOTHERAPY

Exploring Theory, Frame and Practice

Edited by Jo Silbert and Jo Frasca

ROUTLEDGE

สำนักหอสมุด มหาวิทยาลัยเชียงใหม่

616578958
012533178
122555894

Animals as the Third in Relational Psychotherapy

Exploring Theory, Frame and Practice

Edited by Jo Silbert and Jo Frasca

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributor biographies	viii
1 Rat Man to relationality: an introduction	1
JO SILBERT
2 Exploration of animal-human relationships in psychoanalytic psychotherapy: finding pathways to bridge remnant, disowned, or as yet undeveloped parts of self	14
JOANNE EMMENS
3 Relational creatures: the selfobject functions of dogs in psychoanalytic theory and practice	26
VIRGINIA RACHMANI
4 A dog in the room: interspecies intersubjectivity in relational psychotherapy	48
SEAN MEGGESON
5 Someone to run with: towards a relational neuroscientific approach to dog-assisted child psychotherapy	55
DOR ROITMAN
6 A journey inside Noah's ark: a group analytic theory of child psychotherapy in a therapy zoo	78
DOR ROITMAN
7 Unexpected objects in the group: the Foulksian group-analytic boundary	97
DAVID VINCENT

8	Trauma inevitably equates to baggage	107
	JO FRASCA
9	Sister moon: close encounters with a third	116
	GAIANA GERMANI
10	Frame breakage to the rescue	122
	JO FRASCA
11	A cat in the clinical hour	132
	GRETCHEN HEYER
12	Like a bridge over troubled waters	140
	BETH FELDMAN
13	The secret of grief	156
	JO FRASCA
14	The conduit to fear and anger, and the story	162
	JO FRASCA
15	Together, we can find your voice. Love, Phoebe	170
	LYNN HIGGINS
16	Countertransferential? Counter-therapeutic? Counter-intuitive?
	Some concluding thoughts	179
	JO SILBERT AND JO FRASCA
	Index	185