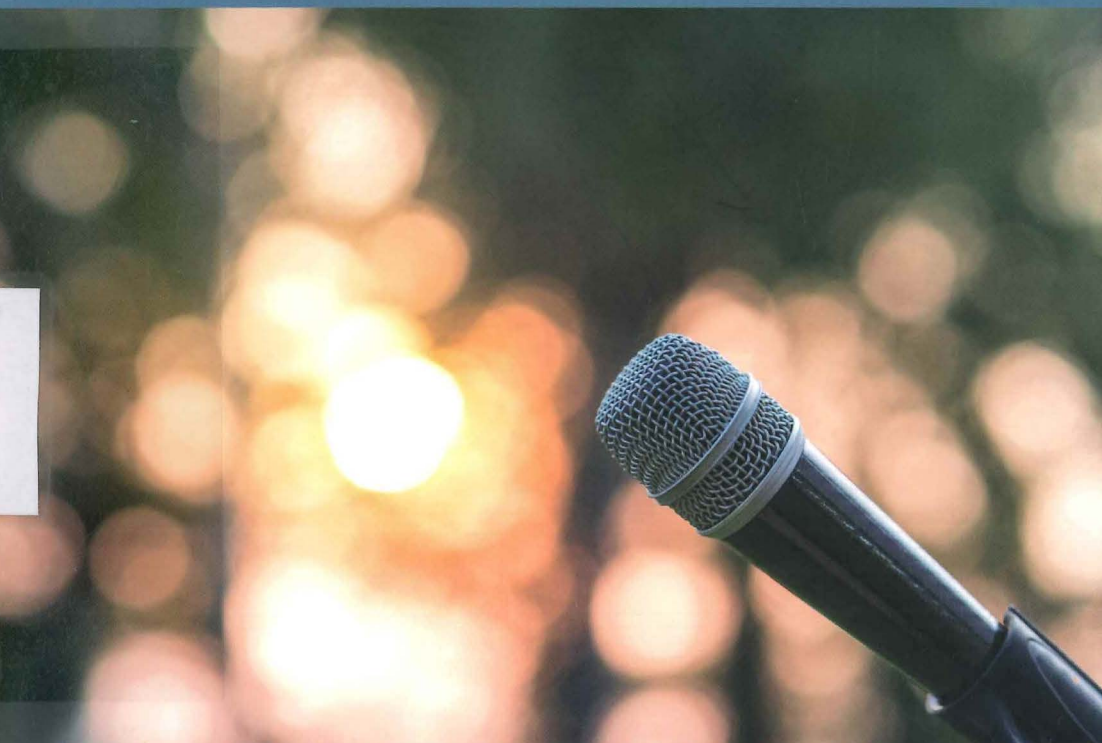
ROUTLEDGE

EDITED BY LUCY ENGLISH AND JACK McGOWAN

SPOKEN WORD IN THE UK



สำนักหอสมุด มหาวิทยาลัยเชียงใหม่
b16587 25x
012538917
122569206

SPOKEN WORD IN THE UK

Edited by Lucy English and Jack McGowan

สำนักหอสมุดมหาวิทยาลัยเชียงใหม่
CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

List of contributors x
Foreword by Luke Kennard xii

Introduction: setting the stage: an introduction to spoken word in the UK 1
Jack McGowan and Lucy English

SECTION 1
Background to spoken word in the UK 15

1 Biting back against the Fascist Octopus: the story of Apples and Snakes 17
Russell Thompson

2 Suffering fools: the survival and adaptation of British absurd, comic, and satirical traditions in the era of poetry slams 27
Steve Larkin

3 Black Country, Ay We – voices from post-industrial Britain 41
Emma Purshouse and R. M. Francis

4 The New October Poets 51
Adrian Johnson

5 Glasgow, Scotland and spoken word from 1986 to 2018 63
Jim Ferguson

6 A critical account of the development of spoken word events and settings in Wales in collaboration with partners in Sweden and Ireland 75
Mel Perry and Dominic Williams

7 The democracy of poetry: the Bristol spoken word scene 88
Lucy English

SECTION 2
Audience and performer 107

8 The spoken word experience: affect transmission in contemporary performance poetry 109
Jack McGowan

9 The limitations of the page/stage dichotomy: examining the page/stage divide 122
Niall O'Sullivan

10 Exploring the relationship between audience and performer, the implications of the affective turn in reader-response and the emancipation of the passive spectator 133
Scott Martingell

11 'Speak your truth': authenticity in UK spoken word poetry 142
Katie Ailes

12 Audience as co-author: poet–audience relationship in performance poetry 154
Lauren McNamara

13 Listen to me! The moral value of the poetry performance space 166
Karen Simecek

14 Audience and performer responses to performing 1–2–1 and intimate poetry 178
Debra Watson

SECTION 3
Cultural exchange 191

15 Poetic Orality in working-class culture 1840–1870 193
Simon Rennie

16 She Grrrowls: feminism in contemporary spoken word 207
Carmina Masoliver

17 Playing for affect in counterpublics: an interdisciplinary investigation into the transformative potential of spoken word hybridity 221
Katy Wareham Morris

18 The metic experience of the Black British Writer: challenging the margins 235
Nick Makoha

19 Overthrowing societal norms through the spoken word: Benjamin Zephaniah's dub poetry in City Psalms 246
Ian Hickey

20 The impact of Malika's Poetry Kitchen on the UK poetry scene 260
Sundra Lawrence

SECTION 4
Styles and techniques 277

21 Fish out of water or creative chameleon? Spoken word as a form of social mobility 279
Kate Fox

22 Style and technique in spoken word 292
David Hubble

23 British spoken word voice 306
Hannah Silva

24 I thought I was just coming to watch: audience participation in spoken word performance 322
Rose Condo

SECTION 5
Pedagogy of spoken word 335

25 How can developing an Overarching Pedagogical Metaphor defining my own poetics, aid my teaching of creative writing and 'Spoken Word Education'? 337
Amy Neilson Smith

26 Spoken word education: the role of a spoken word educator: pitfalls and possibilities 351
Sara Hirsch

27 Searching for consistency: applying Reflective Equilibrium to performance poetry criticism 363
Ross McFarlane and Bibi June Schwithal

28 Spoken word as therapy and power 375
Jhilmil Breckenridge

29 Intersections between spoken word in the UK and US: a nexus in dialogue 383
Helen Johnson and Jacob Sam-La Rose

SECTION 6
Publicity and distribution 397

30 Speaking with machines and machines that speak: spoken word and digital performance poetry 399
David Devanny

31 The capital of culture and the culture of capital: the controversy of commerce in spoken word 411
Peter Bearder

32 Poetry slam in the UK 423
Toby Campion

33 More show, less tell? How do we talk about spoken word now that it is working on a theatre stage? 437
Sharon Clark and Ruth Stacey

34 Spoken word in print: instant coffee: a conversation with Clive Birnie from Burning Eye Books 449
Clive Birnie (interviewed by Lucy English)

Index 456