

Young Chinese Migrants: Compressed Individual and Global Condition

Laurence Roulleau-Berger

Series Editors: Vincenzo Cicchelli and Sylvie Octobre

BRILL

สำนักหอสมุด มหาวิทยาลัยเชียงใหม่

pb 16680/82

0125-840
1226589

Young Chinese Migrants: Compressed Individual and Global Condition

By

Laurence Roulleau-Berger

Translated by

Matthew Glasgow

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Preface IX

Acknowledgements XI

List of Figures, Maps and Tables XII

Introduction: Young Chinese Migrants, the Compressed Individual and Global Condition 1

- 1 Compressed Modernity, Time and Space 2
- 2 Chinese Experience and Young Migrants 4
  - 2.1 Chinese Experience and Internal Migration 5
  - 2.2 Chinese Migration and Transnationalism 6
- 3 Work and “Emotional Capitalism” 8
- 4 Compressed Individual and Inequalities 11
- 5 Compressed Modernity, Subpolitics and Collective Action 13

1 Young Chinese Migrants, Subalternity and the Compressed Individual 17

- 1 New Urban Boundaries and Migratory Ordeals in China 17
- 2 Young Migrants and Urban Segregation 21
- 3 Labour and Subalternity 25
- 4 Employment and Social Discrimination 31
- 5 Floating Labour, Hegemonic Labour Regimes and Emotions 34
- 6 Social Conflicts, Collective Action and Dormitory Regimes 43
- 7 Multi-Compressed Modernity and Mobility 50
- 8 Compressed mobilities and Subalternity 53
  - 8.1 Strong Subalternity 54
  - 8.2 Integrative subalternity 55
  - 8.3 Weak Subalternity 56

2 The Fabric of “Heroes” and Emotional Capitalism 59

- 1 Young Migrant Graduates and Employment 59
- 2 Compressed Modernities and Migratory Careers 65
  - 2.1 Disaffiliative Mobility and Weak Integration 68
  - 2.2 Affiliative Mobility and Strong Integration 70
  - 2.3 “Alternative” Mobility and the Distancing of Compressed Modernity 71
- 3 Moral Economies and the Compressed Individual 73
- 4 “Being a Hero” and Restricted Autonomy 76

5	Guanxi and Professional Relationships	80
6	Socialist Heritage, Compressed Modernities and Work	82
7	Compressed Modernity and Resistance to Emotional Capitalism	88
3	Young Chinese Migrants, Economic Cosmopolitanism and Globalisation	93
1	Young Chinese Migrants and Local Cosmopolitanisms	93
2	Compressed Society, Migration and the Digital Economy	97
3	Retail Traders, Entrepreneurs and Workers	100
4	Inter-Ethnic Relations, Muslim Solidarity and Discrimination	102
5	Transmigration and Economic Assemblages	106
4	Young Chinese Migrants and World Society	112
1	Work, Employment and Young Chinese Graduates in Europe	112
2	Ethnic Niches, Violence and Suffering	117
3	Chinese Economic Elites and the Cosmopolitan Spirit	121
4	Discrimination, Racism and Skills	125
5	Ethnic Enclaves and Multiple Affiliations	129
5	The Compressed Individual and Polygamic Biographies	135
1	Social Networks, Spatial Capital and Migratory Circulations	135
2	Compressed Individual and Family Governmentality	138
3	Polygamic Biographies and the Translation of Resources	142
4	Multi-Compressed Modernity and the Spiral of Downward Mobility	148
5	Ownership, Maintenance and Loss of Self	150
6	Compressed Individual , Re-migration in China and to China	152
	Conclusion	158
	Bibliography	165
	Index	180