

CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES xi

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION xiii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xvii

1 The Impact of New Technologies on Collection Development and Management 1

Overview 1

E-Books and Libraries 2

Self-Publishing and Libraries 3

The "Long Tail" 5

Web 2.0 and Social Networking 7

The Information Commons, Open Access Serials, and Open Source Software 8

Globalization 9

Discussion Questions 11

References and Selected Readings 11

2 Assessing User Needs and Marketing the Collection to Those Users 13

Overview 13

Who and What Will Be Studied? 14

Where Are Data Collected? 16

When Should the Data Be Collected? 17

How Are the Data Interpreted? 18

Tips for a Good Study 18

Marketing Your Collection 19

Summary 23

Activities 23

Discussion Questions 25

References 25

Selected Readings 26

3 Collection Development Policies 29

Overview 29

Purpose of Collection Development Policies 31

Basic Elements of a Collection Development Policy 33

Activities 47

Discussion Questions 47

References 47

Selected Readings 48

4 Selection Sources and Processes 49

Overview 49

Considerations in the Selection Process 49

Selection Criteria 53

Selection Teams 57

Selection Differences for Internet Resources 58

Tools for Acquiring and Selecting Materials 59

General-Review Sources Online 66

Other Selection Means 67

Open Access Movement 68

Summary 69

Activity 70

Discussion Questions 70

References 70

Selected Readings 71

5 Acquisitions 73

Overview 73

The Principal Goal of Library Acquisitions 73

The Nature of Library Resources 74

Methods of Acquiring Materials 76

Sources of Library Materials 77

Out-of-Print Purchasing 83

Gifts and Exchanges 84

A Word on Formats 88

Summary 89

Discussion Questions 89

References 90

Selected Readings 90

6 Budgeting and Fiscal Management 93

- Overview 93
- Accountability 94
- Fiscal Year 95
- Types of Budgets 95
- Budget Scenarios 96
- Setting Budget Priorities 97
- Gathering Information for a Library Materials Budget Request 98
- Consortium Purchases 100
- Bookkeeping Terminology 101 100
- Activity 102
- References 103
- Selected Readings 103

7 Assessment and Evaluation of the Collection, Including Deselection (Weeding) 105

- Overview 105
- Evaluating or Assessing the Collection 106
- Deselection or Weeding the Collection 111
- Summary 117
- Discussion Questions 117
- Activity 118
- References 118
- Selected Readings 119

8 Cooperative Collection Development and Resource-Sharing 121

- Overview 121
- Library Consortia 121
- Cooperative Collection Development Defined 122
- Benefits and Challenges of Cooperative Collection Development 123
- Consortial and Access Relationships 124
- Interlibrary Loan 125
- Summary 125
- Case Study 126
- Discussion Questions 126
- References 126
- Selected Readings 127

9 Legal Issues in Collection Development 129

- Overview 129
- Copyright and Licensing 130
- Digital Rights Management 141
- Donations: Legal and Tax Issues 147
- Diversity Issues 150
- Americans with Disabilities Act Issues 151
- Activities 154
- Discussion Questions 155
- References 155
- Selected Readings 155

10 Professional Ethics and Intellectual Freedom 159

- Overview 159
- Professional Ethics 159
- Intellectual Freedom and Censorship 163
- Self-Censorship 167
- Summary 170
- Discussion Questions 171
- Activity 171
- References 171
- Selected Readings 172

11 Preservation 173

- Overview 173
- Preservation of Books and Other Physical Objects 174
- Preservation Microfilming 176
- Disaster Plans 176
- Preservation of Digital Objects 177
- Is Digitized Information Preserved (or Preservable)? 179
- Who Should Archive an Electronic Resource? 181
- Who Should Be Concerned with Preservation Issues? 182
- Summary 184
- Activity 184
- Discussion Questions 185
- References 185
- Selected Readings 186

12 The Future of Collection Development and Management 187

Overview 187

Views on the Future of Collection Development 188

By Type of Library 190

Summary 191

Discussion Questions 191

References 192

Selected Readings 192

BIBLIOGRAPHY 195

APPENDIX

List of Library Vendors: Publishers, Wholesalers, and Vendors 223

INDEX 245