
Contents

List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Foreword	xv
TONY E. ADAMS
1 The gendered subject in the social world	1
Research themes and structure of the work	2
Methodological overview	3
Ethical considerations	7
The exegesis – analysis and interpretation	8
2 Critical framing: literature review	13
Sociological framing of gendered subject formation	14
The subject in the social world	27
Competing/intersecting complexes of power constructing gender	34
Trans and gender-diverse health and well-being	42
In summary – a complex intersectional multidisciplinary framing	44
3 Autoethnography I – Peter	51
Ignorance is Bliss (1951–1958)	51
Realisations (1958–1962)	57
Secret Agency (1963–1965)	63
Puberty Rupture (1965)	70
My Dark Ages (1966–1971)	72
4 Autoethnography II – Ghost	87
Grasping for Stability (1971–1973)	87
Transgression and Identity Quest (mid-1973–1990)	90

5	Autoethnography III – Julie	126
	Rebirth – transition work (1990–1992)	126
	The Art of Becoming Myself in a Gendered World	134
6	My accommodation to the social world	156
	The interplay between desire and normative gender coercion	156
	Agency grounded in a transformation of subjectivity	160
	Agency grounded in restructuring power relations with institutions	165
	Political recognition and agency	168
	Gendered identity	170
	Psychological health	172
	Gendered embodiment, habitus and physical health	174
	Relationships, intimacy, sexuality and liveable life	175
	Aesthetic appreciation and achievement	178
	Becoming myself	182
7	The subject's explication of the social world	187
	Society needs coercion for gender to be performed 'naturally'	187
	Individual, ascribed identity and identity politics	189
	Disease models of gender nonconformity	190
	A critique of complexes of power on gender nonconformity	192
	The radical feminist moral critique of transsexuality	195
8	Remaking the social world	206
	Strategies for achieving the necessities in life	207
	Strategies for a healthy life	207
	Strategies for achieving a life with agency	211
	Strategies for making one's life a work of art	215
	The realistic possibility of social change	219
9	Synthesis and conclusions	223
	A non-pathological schema on the operation of gender	224
	Ensuing research questions	229
	The major themes considered	232
	Index	237