

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
List of Contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xvi
1 Introduction Zizi Papacharissi	1
2 Numerical Being and Non-Being: Probing the Ethos of Quantification in Bereavement Online Amanda Lagerkvist	11
3 Co-Creating Birth and Death on Social Media Tama Leaver	35
4 Imagining the Future through the Lens of the Digital: Parents' Narratives of Generational Change Sonia Livingstone and Alicia Blum-Ross	50
5 Storytelling the Self into Citizenship: How Social Media Practices Facilitate Adolescent and Emerging Adult Political Life Lynn Schofield Clark and Regina Marchi	69
6 Family Life in Polymedia Mirca Madianou	89

7	Every Click You Make, I'll Be Watching You: Facebook Stalking and Neoliberal Information Ilana Gershon	104
8	Formative Events, Networked Spaces, and the Political Socialization of Youth Neta Kligler-Vilenchik and Ioana Literat	121
9	Defying Death: Black Joy as Resistance Online Catherine Steele and Jessica Lu	143
10	Young People and Digital Grief Etiquette Crystal Abidin	160
11	Deconstructing Immortality? Identity Work and the Death of David Bowie in Digital Media Johanna Sumiala	175
12	The Afterlife of Software Michael Stevenson and Robert W. Gehl	190
13	From Personal to Personalized Memory: Social Media as Mnemotechnology Robert Prey and Rik Smit	209
14	Social Media Rituals: The Uses of Celebrity Death in Digital Culture Jean Burgess, Peta Mitchell, and Felix Victor Münch	224
15	Ghosts in the Machines: How Centuries of Technological Play with Death Has Helped Make Sense of Life Whitney Phillips and Ryan M. Milner	240
	Index	257