

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
List of Figures	xi
Notes on Contributors	xiii
The Homily of Pain and Privilege: Understanding the Need for a Discourse on Mixed Identity Ellis Hurd	xvii
Part 1: Exploring the Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege
1. Navigating the Ambiguity of Mixed Identity as Chinese-Indonesian Dian Mitrayani	3
2. The Unbearable Whiteness of Being Cristina Santamaría Graff	21
3. Stepping towards Healing about Learning Disability at Our Intersectionality: How Learning Disability Pain and Privilege Structured Our Schooling Experiences Lisa A. Boskovich and David I. Hernández-Saca	47
Part 2: Supporting Youth with Marginalized Identities
4. The Unidentified Nationality: Navigating Middle School as a Third Culture Kid Hwa Pyung Yoo	77
5. Mis Roots Paloma E. Villegas	89
6. A Different Kind of Asian Persuasion Susan Y. Leonard	91
7. Transformative Consciousness Raising Questions Hannah R. Stohry	107
Part 3: Exploring the Convergences of Identity and Cultural Responsiveness
8. Will I Ever Be Enough? An African Louisiana Creole's Narrative on Race, Ethnicity, and Belonging Raymond Adams	115

CONTENTS

9. Sika Jessica Samuels	133
Part 4: Interrelated Homilies (Movements) of Mixed Identity: An International Lens
10. Being Ambiguously Brown in Africa: An Autoethnography of Biracial Identity in Three Acts Lynnette Mawhinney	149
11. Identity Perceptions of Youth in Middle and High-School: Beyond Being Mestizo Mariana León and Guillermina-Itzel de Gracia	161
12. Bordered Lives: An Autoethnography of Transnational Precarity Francisco J. Villegas and Paloma E. Villegas	175
13. The Ubiquitous Rank: Some Reflections on Walking on Thin Ice Anne Ryen	191
Part 5: On Being Mixed and Moving Forward
14. Raising Consciousness for Multi-Racial Third Culture Kids Hannah R. Stohry	213
15. Resisting Learning Disability Oppression: Healing through Dis/Ability Voice David I. Hernández-Saca	241
16. Poems on Being Mixed and Moving Forward Lisa A. Boskovich	245
17. Walking the Line Iman Fagan	249
Part 6: Conclusion
18. The Untold Future of Being Mixed: Moving Forward While Remembering What Is Behind Ellis Hurd	257