

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction: The Dynamics of Language and Inequality Joel Windle, Dánie de Jesus and Lesley Bartlett	xi
Section 1: The Shifting Boundaries of Linguistic Inequality
1 Across Linguistic Boundaries: Language as a Dimension of Power in the Colonization of the Brazilian Amazon Dennys Silva-Reis and Marcos Bagno	3
2 Navigating Soft and Hard Boundaries: Race and Educational Inequality at the Borderlands Joel Windle and Kassandra Muniz	24
3 Rural-Urban Divides and Digital Literacy in Mongolian Higher Education Daariimaa Marav	44
Section 2: Language, Ideology and Inequality
4 A Cycle of Shame: How Shaming Perpetuates Language Inequalities in Dakar, Senegal Teresa Speciale	61
5 The Role of Shame in Drawing Social Boundaries for Empowerment: ELT in Kiribati Indika Liyanage and Suresh Canagarajah	71
6 Native-speakerism and Symbolic Violence in Constructions of Teacher Competence Junia C.S. Mattos Zaidan	84
7 Knowledge Politics, Language and Inequality in Educational Publishing Maria do Socorro Alencar Nunes Macedo, Daniele Alves Ribeiro, Euclides de Freitas Couto and André Luan Nunes Macedo	100

Section 3: Transgression and Agency

8	Decoloniality and Language in Education: Transgressing Language Boundaries in South Africa Carolyn McKinney	115
9	Queering Literacy in Brazil's Higher Education: Questioning the Boundaries of the Normalized Body Danie de Jesus	133
10	'Saudi Women Are Finally Allowed to Sit Behind the Wheel': Initial Responses from TESOL Classrooms Osman Z. Barnawi and Phan Le Ha	141
	Multilingual Abstracts	158
	Index	165