

The Guide to Play Therapy Documentation and Parent Consultation

Linda E. Homeyer and Mary Morrison Bennett

■ Contents

About the Authors	xiv
--------------------------------	-----

Part One

Documentation and Parent Consultation	1
1 Introduction	3
The Golden Thread	6
Using This Guide	6
Importance of Professional Liability Insurance	8
Importance of Supervision and Consultation	9
Resources	10
References	11
2 Inquiry Through Intake Summary	13
The Inquiry	13
Scheduling Initial Parent Consultation	16
Intake Documents	20
Intake Summary	22
Resources	23
References	23
3 Initial Parent Consultation	24
Building the Relationship	27
Information to Gather	28
Information to Give	32
Frequency of Play Therapy Sessions and Parent Consultations	36
Preparing the Child for the Playroom	38
Managing Dual Relationships	40
Other Considerations	41
Closing the Session	42
People to Paper: Documentation	42
In Closing	44

x	Contents
	Resources	44
	References	44
4	Diagnosis and Treatment Plan	46
	Case Conceptualization Statement	46
	Developing the DSM Diagnosis	48
	Creating the Treatment Plan	49
	Sharing the Treatment Plan With the Parents	55
	Resources	56
	References	56
5	Treatment Phase: Session Notes	58
	Session Notes	58
	Additional Dynamics to Document	67
	In Closing	73
	Resources	73
	References	73
6	Ongoing Parent Consultations	74
	What Is the Purpose of a Parent Consultation?	74
	Basic Components of a Parent Consultation	76
	Basic Skills in a Parent Consultation	83
	Parent Expectations of Parent Consultations	84
	Parent Consultation Models	85
	People to Paper: Documentation	86
	In Closing	87
	Resources	88
	References	88
7	Termination	90
	Termination Summary	90
	Termination Discussion With Parents	93
	Termination Closure for the Play Therapist	95
	Resources	95
	Part Two
	Looking Further	97
8	Parents Who Challenge Us	99
	Counseling Theory in Parent Consultations	99

Therapist Attitudes	102
Responding to Parent's Questions	103
Working With Other Professionals	105
Divorced Parents	105
Familiar Parent Profiles	108
Referring Parents for Their Own Counseling	112
When Parents Activate You	113
In Closing	115
Resources	115
References.....	115
9 Difficult Parenting Issues	116
The Importance of Co-Regulation.....	116
Helping Parents Talk With Their Children About Difficult Topics	117
Creating a Divorce Narrative.....	120
General Support for Divorced Parents.....	123
Talking With Parents About Trauma	125
Talking With Parents About Sensitive Topics	126
In Closing	129
Resources	130
10 A Deeper Look at Play.....	132
Therapeutic Powers of Play	133
View of Play Continuum	138
Directive Versus Nondirective Continuum.....	139
Neurobiology in the Playroom	139
In-the-Moment: The Play Therapist's Response to Play	140
In Closing	141
Resources	141
References.....	142
11 Finding a Theory	143
Therapeutic Powers of Play	143
Exploring Counseling Theories.....	144
Indicators for Selecting Your Play Therapy Theory	146
In Closing	149
Resources	150
References.....	151

12 Professional Growth Considerations	152
Seekers and Finders of Continuing Education	152
Becoming a Registered Play Therapist™	153
Play Therapy Consultation and Supervision	155
Association for Play Therapy’s Play Therapy Best Practices	156
In Closing	157
References	157
Appendices	159
Appendix A: Sample Intake Forms	161
Intake Form	162
Informed Consent for Play Therapy	163
Professional Disclosure Statement	165
Professional Disclosure Statement—Sample	166
Child Background Form	168
Consent for Release of Information	175
Appendix B: Initial Parent Consultation Session Notes	176
Initial Parent Consultation Preparation Form	177
Initial Parent Consultation Session Note	179
Initial Parent Consultation Session Note—Sample	180
Appendix C: Play Therapy Treatment Plans	181
Play Therapy Treatment Plan	182
Adlerian Play Therapy (AdPT) Treatment Plan—Sample	183
Child-Centered Play Therapy (CCPT) Treatment Plan—Sample	185
Cognitive-Behavioral Play Therapy (CBPT) Treatment Plan—Sample	187
Gestalt Play Therapy (GPT) Treatment Plan—Sample	189
Solution-Focused Play Therapy (SFPT) Treatment Plan—Sample	191
CUES & CLUES: Adlerian Play Therapy	194
CUES & CLUES: Child Centered Play Therapy	195
CUES & CLUES: Cognitive Behavioral Play Therapy	196
CUES & CLUES: Gestalt Play Therapy	197
Appendix D: Session Notes, Themes, and more Cues & Clues	198
Play Therapy Session Note—Nondirective	200
Play Therapy Session Note—Directive	201
Adlerian Play Therapy Session Note	202

Guidelines for Cognitive-Behavioral Play Therapy Session Note	204
Cognitive-Behavioral Play Therapy Session Note	206
Solution-Focused Play Therapy Session Note.	207
Play Therapy Cues & Clues: Objective Information	209
Play Therapy Cues & Clues: Major Themes and Play Behaviors.	211
Play Therapy Themes by Factor Analysis	215
Play Therapy Themes That Merit Special Attention	216
Play Therapy Session Cues & Clues: Other Useful Scales.	217
Appendix E: Ongoing Parent Consultations.	218
Weekly Parent Feedback Form	219
Weekly Parent Feedback Form—Sample	220
Parent Consultation Preparation Form	221
Parent Consultation Preparation Form—Sample.	222
Parent Consultation Session Note.	223
Parent Consultation Session Note—Sample	224
Appendix F: Therapeutic Parenting Skill Practice Worksheets	225
Reflection of Feeling Practice Worksheet—Instructions	226
Reflection of Feeling Practice Worksheet.	227
Limit Setting Practice Worksheet—Instructions.	228
ACT Limit Setting Practice Worksheet.	229
Adlerian Play Therapy Limit Setting Practice Worksheet.	230
Appendix G: Termination.	231
Play Therapy Termination Summary	232
Play Therapy Termination Summary—Sample	233
Index.	234